Welcome to our new identity: vibrant, contemporary, and full of heart.

At Buxton Opera House, we stand proudly for entertainment, community and heritage. Driven by creativity, our mission is to ignite a thriving, artistic community; building inspiring opportunities with and for our audiences; and creating internationally renowned theatre experiences that impact locally and beyond our 'Theatre in the Hills'.

For the past year, our dedicated teams have been carefully reimagining how we express who we are. As we continue to grow beyond the local area, through our Created in Buxton productions, professional development pathways, wellbeing-led projects, and creative collaborations, we felt it was time for a brand that better reflects not only what we do, but who we serve: an extraordinary audience as diverse, passionate and creative as the art we share.

As a charity, we exist to spark creativity. From within our two stunning heritage venues to spaces across the High Peak, we are home to more than just fantastic entertainment. We are a powerhouse of artistic energy – a place where talent is nurtured, creativity is cultivated, and everyone is invited to be part of something lasting. This is reflected in everything we do, from our main stage and Arts Centre productions, to the inspiring work of Buxton Opera House Creates, our community participation programme.

We hope this refreshed look invites you in, makes you feel at home, and inspires you to get involved: to create, to learn, to connect, and to grow.

Browse our latest programme of shows and participation activities, and step into a world where creativity belongs to everyone.

We are deeply thankful to Arts Council England for their continued support, and recently to The National Lottery Heritage Fund for helping us safeguard the future of our beloved Frank Matcham building. Stay tuned as exciting possibilities unfold!

Paul Kerryson MBE CEO, Buxton Opera House

2:22 A Ghost Story

Winner of Best New Play at the WhatsOnStage Awards, Kevin Clifton (Strictly Come Dancing, Everybody's Talking About Jamie, Chicago) and Stacey Dooley (TV presenter and Strictly winner) star in this edge-of-your-seat supernatural thriller. They're joined by Grant Kilburn (2:22 A Ghost Story) as Ben and Shvorne Marks (Three Little Birds, Get Millie Black) as Lauren.

“There’s something in our house, I hear it every night, at the same time” Jenny believes her new home is haunted, but her husband Sam isn’t having any of it. They argue with their first dinner guests, old friend Lauren and new partner Ben. Can the dead really walk again?

Belief and scepticism clash, but something feels strange and frightening, and that something is getting closer, so they’re going to stay up... until 2:22... and then they’ll know.

Aladdin

Grab your magic carpet, buckle up and get ready for a whole new pantomime experience!

When the charming but poor Aladdin meets Princess Sharon, he thinks all of his dreams have come true, until he comes across a magical lamp and a Genie who grants him three wishes. However, this is panto and the course of true love never did run smooth... Will Aladdin outsmart evil Aveajaffa and what will his meddlesome Mother Dame Twankey have to say?

Written and directed by Paul Kerryson and reuniting the team that brought you Jack and the Beanstalk (2024) and Cinderella (2023), expect masterful music, mesmerising costumes and all the pantomime mayhem you know and love.

“Buxton Opera House's pantomimes have become a must see of the festive period.”

– Moorlands Radio on Jack and the Beanstalk 2024
